

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

BENEDICT SIMWERO WANDERA
MANAGEMENT CONSULTANT
AND EXECUTIVE COACH

Ben is the Director of Henderson, Harper & Associates Uganda, based in Kampala. He has over 20 years experience working in the private sector in Uganda and as an Executive Coach is continually improving his own abilities through retraining. He is at the forefront of business development for Henderson, Harper & Associates Uganda. He acts as co-ordinator of all seminars and workshops and is building up the base to serve the Uganda and East African Region.

Previously Mr. Wandera worked with various local and international companies in different administrative and management positions in the areas of construction, sports and leisure, manufacturing and shipping. He worked for 6 years as a Sales and Marketing Manager with P&O Nedlloyd (Uganda) Ltd., a subsidiary of the then premiere world shipping company P&O Nedlloyd. He voluntarily left the company which he served with distinction to pursue an MBA in South Africa. He sits on the board of CTM Uganda, a home finishing international franchise where he plays an advisory role in marketing and other operational matters. He holds an MBA from The Millpark Business School, Johannesburg, South Africa and a Bachelor's degree in Social Science from Makerere University Kampala, Uganda.

He is an avid sportsman with a history of having played basketball at club level and squash at national level. He was also a swimmer. He now spends more time jogging as a hobby.